

Sealing Your Record Cannot:

- Automatically restore your gun rights if you were convicted of a felony
- Allow you to have guardianship over another person (usually)
- Stop your record from being used against you in a trial, by the police, or by the prosecutor if you are arrested or go to court
- Block access by employers in law enforcement, daycare, nursing homes, and teaching

Records may still be seen by:

- Law Enforcement
- Prosecutors
- ACIC (Arkansas Crime Information Center)
- Criminal justice agencies in relation to employment applications or background checks under certain acts
